The Gospel and the Twelve Steps: Following Jesus on the Path of Recovery

The Gospel and the Twelve Steps has been used widely by Christians in recovery groups across America as a tool to facilitate recovery from addiction. Firmly based on biblical teaching, this book has provided spiritual help to Evangelicals, Protestants, and Roman Catholic Christians in recovery from addiction.

Now in a revised edition, subtitled, Following Jesus on the Path of Recovery, this book thoroughly integrates biblical teaching with the Twelve Steps to provide a solid spiritual foundation for those who participate in Christian Twelve Step programs.

Written also for those who practice the Twelve Steps, but who are not Christians, the familiar language of The Gospel and the Twelve Steps can provide a palatable means for those Twelve-Step practitioners who are resistant to institutional Christianity to develop a spiritually vital relationship with Jesus Christ.

The Gospel and the Twelve Steps weaves scripture directly into the text and adds highly relevant biblical commentary from several widely known, beloved authors whose wisdom has stood the test of time. Including C.S. Lewis, George MacDonald, William Barclay, and others, these teachers' words relate directly to the Christian 12-Steps. The combination of ample scriptural references, thoroughly integrated into the text, along with highly relevant commentary, makes The Gospel and the Twelve Steps unique among Christian 12-Steps and other resources for Christians in recovery.

The Gospel and the Twelve Steps is now being used in Christian recovery groups in Malawi (Africa). Thanks to Linda and Bill (California) for their efforts on behalf of those in Malawi!
